

KW Competition Clenches 2006 American Le Mans Series - GT2

PRESS RELEASE

October 2006

After a season full of podium finishes KW Competition takes all 3 spots in the 2006 American Le Mans Series GT2 Drivers Championship!

Petersen/White Lightning and The Flying Lizards, both racing Porsche 996 RSR's equipped with KW's 3 way Competition suspension had been neck and neck all season and it all came down to the final race of the year.

The finale at Laguna Seca Raceway was filled with ups and downs for both teams, but as the dust settled, Petersen/White Lightning took 2nd while the Flying Lizards took 4th and 6th in this race.

The overall Drivers Championship went to Jorg Bergmeister and Petersen/White Lightning, followed by Johannes van Overbeek and the Flying Lizards in 2nd and 3rd place to Patrick Long and Petersen/White Lightning.

In Team Championships Petersen/White Lightning took 2nd and the Flying Lizards received 3rd place.

KW would like to congratulate the 2006 American Le Mans Series GT2 Championship Winners!

For more information on Petersen/ White Lightning and the Flying Lizards please visit the following links.

<http://www.petersenmotorsports.com/index.asp?play=1>

<http://www.lizardms.com/index.html>